

Estd.- 1982

Bhawanipur Anchalik College organizes “Science Fair and Competition” to celebrate “International Day of Women and Girls in Science”

Bhawanipur Anchalik College in collaboration with District Administration, Bajali organizes a one-day long programme “Science Fair and competition” under the aegis of the “Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao” scheme of Government of India, in conjunction with the celebration of the “International Day of Women and Girls in Science” on 10 February 2024.

and Child Development), Ms. Bhagyashree Das along with Ms. Babita Ray, District Programme Assistant (Department of Women and Child Development) were present among the officials from District Administration, Bajali.

Several events such as on-spot Rangoli and Poster making competitions were conducted and participants from over 10 schools in the locality of greater Bhawanipur Area participated in this event. Ms. Trishnaxhi Swargiari, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology, Bhawanipur Anchalik College delivered a talk on the vital roles played by several female scientists around the world in contributions towards scientific developments.