

Estd.- 1982

NSS Cell of Bhawanipur Anchalik College organizes “Voters Awareness Camp

A Voters Awareness Camp was organized at the Seminar Hall of Bhawanipur Anchalik College on February 15, 2024 at 1.30 P.M by the NSS cell of Bhawanipur Anchalik college. The program was initiated following a letter received from the University Grants Commission (UGC) regarding the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Election Commission of India and UGC.

Highlights of the event: A distinguished resource person, Ms. Sanghamitra Dev Roy, Assistant professor, Department of political science ,Bhawanipur Anchalik College delivered an enlightening lecture on the significance of active participation in the electoral process. The lecture covered various aspects such as the role of youth in shaping the future of democracy, the impact of voting on policy decisions, and the importance of exercising one's democratic rights responsibly. A documentary was also screened during the event, showcasing real-life scenarios and emphasizing the crucial role of voting in sustaining a healthy democracy. The documentary highlighted the struggles of nations without democratic systems and underscored the value of every individual's vote in shaping the collective destiny of a nation. The event witnessed active participation from approximately 50 students, along with the presence of the Honorable principal, vice-principal, IQAC coordinator, and faculty members. Through the lecture and documentary, attendees were motivated to actively engage in the electoral process and exercise their voting rights.

The Voters Awareness Camp organized at Bhawanipur Anchalik College served as a commendable initiative in promoting civic engagement and fostering a culture of active participation in the electoral process.