

Celebration of National Unity Day (Rashtriya Ekta Diwas)

Date: 31-10-2025

The Department of Political Science, in collaboration with the NSS Cell of Bhawanipur Anchalik College, organized the celebration of National Unity Day (Rashtriya Ekta Diwas) on 31st October, 2025, to commemorate the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, India's first Deputy Prime Minister and Home Minister.

The event was organized to pay tribute to his unparalleled contribution to nation-building and to reaffirm the values of unity, integrity, and national solidarity among the students and faculty members of the college.

The programme began at 12:30 PM in the college seminar hall and was attended by faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students from various departments. The event opened with a brief welcome address delivered by Khirod Kalita, Coordinator of NSS Cell. The highlight of the programme was a special lecture by Mr. Pranay Pratim Baruah, Assistant Professor of the Department of Political Science, who delivered an insightful talk on the theme "Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and the Spirit of National Integration."

In his address, Mr. Baruah emphasized Patel's political acumen, administrative foresight, and unwavering dedication to the cause of a unified India.

Following the lecture, all attendees participated in the National Unity Pledge, a solemn reaffirmation of their commitment to preserve and strengthen the unity, integrity, and security of the nation. The pledge, led by Sanghamitra Dev Ray, HOD of the Department of Political Science, symbolized the collective spirit of responsibility and national pride among the participants.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the resource person, the NSS Cell, and the college administration for their guidance and cooperation in making the event a success. In essence, the celebration of National Unity Day at Bhawanipur Anchalik College reinforced the college's commitment to nurturing informed, responsible, and compassionate citizens.
