

Estd.- 1982

A TALK ON “VULTURES: THE UNSUNG WARRIORS”

The Department of Zoology, Bhawanipur Anchalik College organized a talk on “Vultures: The Unsung Warriors” on 09.09.2023 (Day: Saturday; Time: 12.00-2.00 pm) in connection with the “International Vulture Awareness Day” which was on 2nd September, 2023.

The Program was hosted by Ms. Aparna Deka and Ms. Trishnakhi Swargiari, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology, Bhawanipur Anchalik College. Dr. Mukunda Sarma, honourable Principal of the college, welcomed the resource person and the team along with other guests, teachers and students and spoke about the importance of conservation of our environment and the mother earth keeping it clean and green.

The distinguished speaker of the talk was Mr. Sachin Ranade, Assistant Director, BNHS, Vulture Conservation Breeding

Centre, Kamrup, Rani, Assam accompanied by the Biologist of the centre Mr. Aniket Pawar. Sir explained in details about different species of vultures found in India and discussed the present status, threats, Conservational activities and breeding of vulture in the region and the country. Sir specifically emphasized on the importance of vulture in keeping the environment clean and healthy.

Many students, who attended the program, won prizes (T-shirt with ‘Save Vulture, Save Nature’ tag line) from the resource person and the team during the after presentation quiz. The talk was ended with the vote of thanks by Dr. Khirod Sankar Das, Head of the Department, Zoology, Bhawanipur Anchalik College.

