Lecture & Movie-Screening Programme on Constitution Day, 2024

On 26th of November, the Electoral Literacy Club, Bhawanipur Anchalik College, organized a talk on the Significance of Constitution of India which was followed by a movie screening. The event was organized keeping in mind the objectives, such as to educate students about the history, significance, and salient features of the Indian Constitution, including its Preamble, Fundamental Rights, and Duties as well as to inspire students to uphold the principles of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity enshrined in the Constitution.

The event commenced with an inaugural ceremony graced by the presence of faculty members, non teaching staff and students. As a part of the welcome address the significance of celebrating the Constitution Day was delivered by Dr. Banasmita Sarma, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Political Science. Important facts regarding the history of the making and drafting of the Constitution of India were highlighted in the inaugural speech delivered by Mr. Abdus Sattar Chaudhury, Associate Professor, Dept. of History, Bhawanipur Anchalik College.

A special talk on the significance of Constitution Day was delivered Mr. Pranay Pratim Baruah, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Political Science. Mr. Baruah highlighted the facts when Constitution of India was adopted and how it signifies the immense importance of the particular day as this day serves as a reminder of the values enshrined in the Constitution, including justice, equality, liberty, and fraternity, which guide the nation's democratic framework.

Finally, a movie screening program was organized for students to foster awareness about the significance of the Indian Constitution and its impact in our judicial system. The film Jolly LLB, known for its insightful portrayal of courtroom proceedings and the pursuit of justice, was chosen to engage the audience in a meaningful and relatable way.

The programme ended with the vote of thanks by Dr. Banasmita Sarma, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Political Science.
