World AIDS Day Celebration

World AIDS Day was celebrated at Bhawanipur Anchalik College on December 1, 2023, with a day-long event beginning at 11 a.m. The event began with a talk by Dr. Mukunda Sarma, Principal, Bhawanipur Anchalik College. He emphasized the need to make youth aware of the menace of HIV infection and urged everyone to come out and talk about the deadly virus.

This was followed by a detailed talk on HIV/AIDS, its symptoms, methods of prevention, etc. by Ms. Trishnaxhi Swargiari, Assistant Professor, Department of Zoology. A Rangoli competition was held among the students on the theme "HIV/AIDS". The Red Ribbon Club of the college is further planning to observe such important events in collaboration with similar organizations.
